Dance Sessions

Summary

'Global Dance Session' is a high-calibre weekly radio show encompassing all genres of Electronica. Every week, GDS presents the latest in electronica and features a guest mix from the biggest names in the industry.

Past acts include David Morales, Paul Van Dyk, Kraffy Kuts, Sister Bliss, Deep Dish, Stonebridge, Tiesto, Axwell, Groove Junkies, and numerous other stars of the scene.

The show's production can be tailored to provide excellent exposure for a sponsor partner, creating revenue for your station or brand and giving mass marketing opportunities for everyone involved.

International event options are available to complement the radio show - all Global Dance Events, PR and Marketing are managed solely by the 'Breize' agency. 'Breize' has produced spectacular events across the globe for brands such as Ministry of Sound, Diageo, AT&T, Imperial Tobacco, Heineken, Redbull, Maxxium and more.

Structure

The weekly show is two hours long and divided into four twenty-seven minute segments to allow for hourly commercial spots. The first hour features a mix by the resident artist who eases the audience into the show while keeping listeners up to date on current new music with the chart. In the final hour, the listeners are privileged with a famous Dj's personal mix.

Logistics

Shows are available as high quality Mp3's to download from our reliable and secure ftp servers, ensuring your content is constantly and easily accessible in an efficient and economical manner. All show details are emailed directly to you weekly in advance of the show being aired, complete with a summary of the timings, clip and track details.

More

Global Dance can also assist the development of your network or brand by providing radio production packages, premium license branded promotional CD's, event activity or consultancy.

Global Dance Session: supporting your brand with passion, creativity and dedication.
